

104.500. Powers and duties of board--conflict of interest of members or employees prohibited.--

6. No trustee or employee of the system shall receive any gain or profit from any funds or transaction of the system, except benefits from interest in investments common to all members, if entitled thereto.

7. Any trustee or employee accepting any gratuity or compensation for the purpose of influencing his action with respect to the investment of the funds of the system shall thereby forfeit his office and in addition thereto be subject to the penalties prescribed for bribery.