AL	Retirement Systems of Alabama	No public official or public employee shall solicit or receive a thing of value for himself or herself or for a family member of the public employee or family member of the public official for the purpose of influencing official action. (N)othing in this section shall be construed to prohibit a public official or public employee from the performance of his or her official duties or responsibilities.	Alabama State Code of Ethics
AR	Arkansas PERS	It is the obligation of every member of the Board of Trustees (“Board”, “Trustees”, “Trustee”) to conduct him or herself in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity, impartiality, professionalism and ethical behavior of APERS in its relations with retirees, beneficiaries, members, employers, the public, staff, and professional service providers. This Travel and Gift Policy shall apply to all members of the Board of Trustees. Standards of Conduct 1. General Provisions Trustees shall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conduct all System business in a fair and reasonable manner.</li> <li>• Avoid any activity which may be interpreted as, or give the appearance of, a conflict of interest.</li> <li>• Refrain from financial and business dealings that would reflect adversely on the member’s impartiality, interfere with the proper performance of duties or conflict with the execution of System business activities.</li> <li>• Communicate promptly to the Chair or Vice Chair of the Board information or actions which may be violations of the law or of this Travel and Gift Policy, or which may be viewed as conflicts of interest.</li> </ul> 2. Gifts Trustees shall duly report gifts with a fair market value of more than $100.00 from any source, including without limitation, consultants, advisors, service providers, vendors, or prospective vendors of the System, in accordance with the rules set forth by the Arkansas Ethics Commission. A “gift” does not include <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Food or beverages provided in connection with a business meeting, educational seminar, conference or convention.</li> <li>• Food or beverages provided in return for participation in a bona fide panel, seminar, speaking engagement at which the audience is a civic, social, or cultural organization or group.</li> <li>• Promotional or marketing items or materials distributed or made available to all attendees at a business meeting, educational seminar, conference or convention.</li> <li>• Anything with a value of $100.00 or less.</li> <li>• Any other item or activity deemed exempt by the Arkansas Ethic Commission.</li> </ul> 3. Travel and Related Expenses <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Except as provided below, the reasonable or necessary expenses of travel, lodging, meals and incidentals for Trustees traveling on behalf of APERS shall be paid by the System. This provision applies to all travel related to any business meeting, educational seminar, conference or convention attended by any Trustee. Such reimbursement shall conform to the rules set forth by the Arkansas Department of Finance &amp; Administration.</li> <li>• Payments or partial payments for travel, lodging and/or meals in excess of $150.00 by a nongovernmental source in instances where a Trustee is appearing in his or her capacity as a Board member are not considered gifts but must be reported in accordance with the rules set forth by the Arkansas Ethics</li> </ul>	APERS Travel and Gifts Policy

System-specific business meetings shall not be included in this count.</li> <li>• Nothing in this policy is intended to limit or restrict a Trustee's attendance at a business meeting, educational seminar, conference or convention sponsored by an organization to which the Trustee belongs, with which the Trustee is affiliated in his or her capacity other than as an APERS Board member.</li> </ul>
AR	Arkansas State Highway & Transportation Dept Retirement System	The giving or receiving of food, lodging, or travel shall not be considered a gift in situations where a public servant is appearing in his or her official capacity and the appearance bears a relationship to the public servant's office or position. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• For purposes of this rule, a public servant appears in an official capacity when the appearance arises solely because the position held by the public servant, would be subject to expense reimbursement by the agency with which the public servant is associated, and involves matters which fall within the official responsibility of the public servant.</li> <li>• For purposes of this rule, an appearance at an event bears a relationship to the public servant's office or position when such appearance furthers a purpose of the governmental body served by the public servant and the interest of such governmental body outweighs the likelihood that attending the event will improperly influence the public servant in the performance of his or her official duties and responsibilities. Factors to be considered in making a determination as to whether or not an appearance bears a relationship to a public servant's office or position shall include, but not be limited to: the nature of any pending matter affecting the interest of the person paying for the food, lodging, or travel; the importance of the event to the governmental entity; the significance of the public servant's role in the event; the timing of the event; the identity of other expected participants; and, the cost of the public servant attending the event. If a public servant is invited to attend a purely social event with no or a de minimis nexus to the programs or operations of the governmental entity which he or she serves, then the public servant's attendance would not bear a sufficient relationship to his or her office or position to meet the exception contained in subsection (a) of this rule.</li> </ul>	Department policy

MA	Massachusetts Teachers' Retirement Board	Board policy and state statute prohibit board members or staff from soliciting or receiving anything of "substantial value" for or because of any official act or act within his/her official responsibility performed or to be performed by such official. Board policy and ethics commission rules prohibit board member or staff from using or attempting to use his/her official position to secure for himself or others unwarranted privileges or exemptions which are of "substantial value" and which are not properly available to similarly situated individuals. "Substantial value" means anything with a value of $50 or more. This means, on a practical level, that board members and staff are prohibited from accepting gifts valued at $50 or more, regardless of whether there is a quid pro quo connection to an official act. To fall within the prohibition, the gift need only be given because of the official's position. Gifts include, but are not limited to, meals, travel, sports tickets, and golf fees. Gifts to a family member are included within the prohibition.	MTRB ethics policies and practices

ND	North Dakota Teachers Fund for Retirement	Board members shall refrain from financial and business dealings that tend to reflect adversely on their impartiality or interfere with the proper performance of their duties.	NDTFFR's Code of Conduct
NM	New Mexico PERA and ERB	Except for gifts of food or beverage given in a place of public accommodation, consumed at the time of receipt, not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) for a single gift and the aggregate value of which gifts may not exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150) in a calendar year, neither a board member nor an employee of the board shall receive or accept anything of value directly or indirectly from a person who: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• has a current contract with the retirement board or association;</li> <li>• is a potential bidder, offeror or contractor for the provision of services or personal property to the retirement board or association;</li> <li>• is authorized to invest public funds pursuant to state or federal law or is an employee or agent of such a person.</li> </ul>	NM Statutes
NV	Nevada Public Employees Retirement System	A Retirement Board member or member of staff is allowed to accept appropriate gifts. A gift is not appropriate if it would tend improperly to influence a reasonable person to depart from the faithful and impartial discharge of his duties. Each individual is responsible to make the determination as to what is appropriate for themselves, and within the confines of the Ethics in Government statute. Retirement Board and members of the staff shall disclose receipt of any gift with a value in excess of $25.00 by completing an Ethics Disclosure Form for each gift received and submit the completed forms to the Administrative Assistant, on a monthly basis, as gifts are received. A monthly Consolidated Ethics Disclosure report, including all forms received, will be provided in monthly Board packets.	Nevada PERS Board adopted policy. Much of the policy is derived from the Nevada Ethics in Government statutes
OH	Ohio Public Employees Retirement System	The board encourages trustees to attend educational seminars and conferences to advance trustee education and understanding of various retirement system topics and to assist trustees in properly fulfilling their fiduciary responsibilities. Pursuant to Ohio statute, the board must approve in advance of all out-of-state board travel at its public meetings. Registration, hotel, and travel arrangements are handled on the board's behalf by staff. Staff will also assist board members with expense reimbursement after the travel is completed. Board members are prohibited from soliciting or accepting payment of OPERS business related travel expenses, including expenses incurred with the travel for lodging, meals, food and beverages, from anyone other than OPERS. Board members and staff are prohibited from accepting anything of value from persons doing business with or seeking to do business with SERS. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• “Anything of value” is defined as anything whose monetary value is not nominal and includes gifts, money, consulting fees, food or beverages, tickets to social events, golf outings, and travel expenses. Ohio’s ethics laws do not provide a dollar threshold for “nominal.”</li> </ul> b. Board members, the executive director, licensed investment officers, and any other employee who exercises material discretion in the investment of SERS’ funds are prohibited from accepting any honoraria. Other employees may receive honoraria unrelated to their employment from persons who are not doing, or seeking to do, business with SERS. c. Employees must pay the actual value of conferences, including meals. If a registration fee for a conference is reduced or an event is subsidized, SERS employees must pay an amount that reasonably reflects the value of the conference or event. d. Board members, the executive director, licensed investment officers, and any other employee who exercise material discretion in the investment of SERS’ funds cannot accept the payment of actual travel expenses from any source other than SERS regardless of the source or the nominal nature of the expense. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• SERS’ Travel Policy provides that it will reimburse board members and employees for actual, proper, and reasonable expenses incurred for attending appropriate meetings, seminars, and conferences.
